

Recognize there are different preventative medicine strategies for children according to age

- a. Teaching sessions (ideally small group or workshop format) emphasizing healthy pediatric practices that can prevent adult illness
- b. Service Learning activities
- c. Newborn nursery clinical experience (observing counselling)
- d. Practice Motivational Interviewing
 - i. HS students interested in medicine as standardized patients, parental smoking cessation, regular exercise and healthy diet, and other...
- e. Flipped Classroom/Readings/Articles/Videos
- f. Quality Improvement Opportunities in Preventive Care
- g. Role Plays
 - i. Counsel on nutrition, discipline, immunizations, safety, etc

Assessment:

(MCQs, Small Group participation, e.g. PBL/cases, short answer questions)